meals—and ascribing it to one thing—

Candidates are busy and its every man for himself these days. There is no party or factional organization to carry on a campaign for any individual or group of office seekers. Every man must stand on his own merits in his appeal to the voters. There are a fine lot of able men candidates for places on the Republican Ballot next November. Make your choice not altogether on personal likes dislikes and prejudices, but upon your best judgment as to the candidates ability, adaptibility and integrity. Vote for the man you are convinced in best fitted for the office.

Well they felt—and proving it by their meals—and ascribing it to one thing—Tanlac. You see, there are more than one thousand customers every day at the Cherry. Most of them are pretty busy, but they have time enough to pass a good thing along. So they told me about Tanlac, and kept telling me every day.

"Indoor work and long hours had been to drag myself through the day's work. Kidney trouble was causing me fearful pains, I had no appetite and couldn't sleep, and the constant grind had affected my stomach, too. For four months I had been a fine example of the man who is 'all run down.'

THE RAMBLER
There are roses, and roses: Like people, roses are of various degrees from the arrogant aristocrat of the hot house to that impudent tramp, the wild rose of the hedges and fence corners; but unlike people every rose whatever its degree is useful for the brightness and cheer and beauty it brings into the world.

Among the roses there are none that are more prominent and welcome that are more prominent and welcom Appreciation.

A good story comes from London about a lawyer who engaged a new boy. As he had suffered to some extent from the dishonesty of his former lad, he determined to try the new boy's honesty at once. He therefore placed a £5 note under a weight upon his desk and walked out without a word. Upon his return, half an hour later, the note was gone and half a crown in silver had taken its place. "Boy, when I went out I left a £5 note under this weight!" "Yes, sir; but you see you hadn't gone five minutes when a man came in with a bill against you for £4 17 shillings and 6 pence. I believe the change is correct," "Yes, sir; there it is, all receipted. The man said it had slipped your mind for the past four years, and so—" The reason for the intense blueness for which the Italian skies are noted is not because the dust there is finer met han the northern countries, but because in the countries, but because in the countries, but because in the countries of the North, the total was formed to try the new boy's honesty at once and half a crown in silver had taken its place. "Boy, when I went out I left a £5 note under this weight!" "Yes, sir; but you see you hadn't gone five minutes when a man account in the symmetry of the sky may appear bluer at one of the
